Florida Virtual School® Executive Wins 2017 Florida Diversity Council Multicultural Leadership Award

Orlando, FL (May 4, 2017) – Florida Virtual School (FLVS) is proud to announce that Dr. Jodi Marshall, Executive Vice President of Business and School Solutions, is the one of the recipients of the Florida Diversity Council Multicultural Leadership Award.

Started in 2008, The Florida Diversity Council is committed to fostering a learning environment for organizations to grow and leverage their knowledge of diversity. The organization is currently comprised of five active Councils throughout the state of Florida that serve Jacksonville, Orlando, South Florida, Southwest Florida, and Tampa Bay.

Dr. Marshall received this award for her leadership and contributions to Florida Virtual School. FLVS strives to increase awareness of and education around multiculturalism and is committed to maintain the highest ethical standards.

“It is an absolutely honor to be awarded a Florida Diversity Council Multicultural Leadership Award,” said Marshall. “I am proud to represent Florida Virtual School, and fortunate to be recognized alongside so many inspiring colleagues that share the same passions about education as I do.”

A graduate from the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English, Dr. Marshall obtained a Master’s in English Education from the University of Central Florida. She earned a Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Miami where she also worked as an adjunct professor teaching undergraduate students. A few years later, she earned an Educational Specialist degree in Educational Leadership. A believer in life-long learning, she is currently working on a Master’s of Business Administration.

Dr. Marshall is a resident of Tampa, Florida.
